

CREDIT FOR MILITARY SERVICE

POLICY

In recognition of service to our nation, two credit hours of non-course credit shall be awarded for servicemen and women who have completed the basic or recruit training required by the United States Army, United States Air Force, United States Coast Guard, United States Marine Corps, or United States Navy. An official military transcript showing completion of basic or recruit training is required to award credit.