

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
Business Administration

Program SLOs
Students will demonstrate their knowledge of the free enterprise system as determined by an average score of 70% or higher during the course of the program.
Students will demonstrate their knowledge of business processes as determined by an average score of 70% or higher during the course of the program.
Students will demonstrate their knowledge an understanding of business organizations in today's global economy as determined by an average score of 70% or higher during the course of the program.