OVERVIEW/GOALS:

The Basic Law Enforcement Training curriculum certificate program prepares individuals to take the Basic Training Law Enforcement officers certification examination, mandated by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission, and/or it prepares individuals to take the Justice Officers Basic Training certification examination mandated by the North Carolina Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Commission. Successful completion of this curriculum certification program requires that the student satisfy the minimum requirements for the certification by the Criminal Justice Commission and/or the Sheriffs' Commission. The student satisfactorily completing this program will possess at least the minimum degree of general attributes, knowledge, and skills to function as an inexperienced law enforcement officer.

This course contains all required studies for certification as a law enforcement officer as prescribed in the State of North Carolina basic training certification standards established by the Criminal Justice Commission and Sheriffs' Commission. An overall view of the criminal justice system-constitutional law, criminal law, juvenile law, motor vehicle law patrol procedures, civil process, and the mechanics of arrest, civil disorder, criminal investigation, civil liability, and firearms is covered along with related subjects. All credits are earned through successful completion of the Basic Law Enforcement Training School.

Job opportunities are available with state, county and municipal governments in North Carolina. In addition, knowledge, skills and abilities acquired in this course of study qualifies one for job opportunities with private enterprises in such areas as industrial, retail, and private security.

To be eligible to take this course, you must be twenty years of age, a US citizen, have a GED or high school transcript, a medical release from a North Carolina Licensed physician, and no felony convictions.

COMPETENCIES/OBJECTIVES:

The overall objective of the Basic Law Enforcement Training program is to prepare the student for the last day of the course to take and pass the final comprehensive state examination for certification as a law enforcement officer in the State of North Carolina.

There are 36 blocks of instruction required by the Criminal Justice Commission and Sheriffs' Commission in the student's manual of the Basic Law Enforcement Training program. Upon completion of each block of instruction, given the materials presented, the student should be able to achieve the stated training objectives on the administrative sheet at the beginning of each block of instruction.

FINANCIAL AID:

There are several financial aid and scholarship programs as well as the VA program that apply to this course. Please fill out financial aid packet and all other scholarship applications and return the applications to student services main campus in Supply (910- 755-7300 ext. 328) to see if you qualify.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

A student must attend 100 percent of the class hours and make up any missed class. You cannot miss more than 5 percent and receive a passing grade for the course. (State Regulations)
