HIT Program Student Learning Outcomes

PSLO 1
Students will demonstrate an understanding of information protection, access, disclosure, archival, privacy and security of Health Information as determined by performing at 80% or better on assessments throughout the curriculum.

PSLO 2
Students will demonstrate knowledge and skills to process, analyze, maintain, and report health information data in compliance with legal, accreditation, licensure and certification standards as determined by performing 80% or better on assignments throughout the curriculum.

PSLO 3
Students will apply diagnosis and procedure codes according to current guidelines and evaluate revenue cycle processes as determined by performing 80% or better on assessments.

PSLO 4
Students will demonstrate competence in applying principles and knowledge from AHIMA's domains for HIT by scoring 80% or better on the HIT Mock Exam administered at the conclusion of the program.