

Upon successful completion of the Cyber Security certificate, graduates should be able to:

- Identify current ethical issues in computer technology
- Identify technology trends within cyber security
- Create strategic plans to enhance network security
- Identify emerging technologies within cyber crime
- Use industry standard tools and procedures to recover data
- Identify methods for gathering technical evidence to be used in criminal prosecution