"Brunswick Community College and Economic and Workforce Development, and specifically the Customized Training Program, is an exceptional partner in TRITECHFORENSICS' journey to obtain ISO 9001 Certification. This training and certification will enhance our ability to gain more business in the EU."

Eric A. Barton, Vice President
TRITECHFORENSICS

"Brunswick Community College has consistently been a valued partner of HSM Machine Works, providing Customized Training Programs that have proven instrumental in our achieving AS9100/ISO9001 certification, and aided in enhancing the skills of our employees on the shop floor. These programs have contributed significantly to expanding our capabilities, and helped make our company more efficient and profitable. Additionally, we have hired several staff members through their Continuing Education Programs that have become key members of our team. Brunswick Community College is our "Go-to" source for training, and HSM looks forward to partnering with them for many years to come."

James Flock, General Manager
